Spend a meaningful summer in China as a Program Leader, inspiring children and exploring Chinese culture.

Summer Position: Program Leader, China English Immersion Camps (no need for Chinese language ability)

ENGAGE IN A CHALLENGING AND LIFE-CHANGING EXPERIENCE.
POSITIVELY IMPACT THE LIVES OF CHILDREN.
EXPLORE CHINA AND BUILD YOUR LEADERSHIP SKILLS.

WorldStrides Global Camps (www.worldstridesglobalcamps.com) ("WGC") is one of the world’s largest and most successful summer camps operators, and is a division of WorldStrides, the leading international provider of educational travel and experiential learning programs (www.worldstrides.com). We are looking for exceptional individuals who enjoy working with children, exploring different cultures, and want to experience the world outside of the United States.

Program Leader Role
Program Leaders at our English immersion China day camps are native English language speaking guides for small groups of students in an innovative curriculum focusing on strengthening communication skills, inspiring confidence, and stimulating creativity among local children 5-12 years old. We have available positions in variety of areas including Science, Creative Writing, Performing Arts, Visual Arts and Sports. This is a fun experience and provides the opportunity to share your knowledge while inspiring children. You will be supported by 3 bilingual local assistants.

We provide a full training program before the start of camp to give you all the skills you need. You will be part of a group of 50 other top university students in the program, working on average 40 hours per week, with plenty of time off to explore China. The position runs 7-8 weeks including a week of staff training. No Chinese language skills or teaching experience required!

Program 1: Beijing Camps Thursday June 13 - August 13 (8 Weeks)
Program 2: Shanghai & Hangzhou Camps Wednesday June 19 - August 13 (7 Weeks)

Core Responsibilities
• Lead classroom/outdoor activities for children ages 5-12
• Work with a team of teaching assistants
• Take part in or help coordinate in camp spirit activities such as Color War, Parents’ Day events, air band competitions, and camp songs and chants
• Support camp preparation and wind down
• Contribute ideas to regular team meetings
• Join professional development seminars, cultural excursions, company visits and talks by local business and thought leaders
• Take on additional leadership roles in your area of interest
• Have a thoroughly enjoyable summer while exploring China

Benefits
• $3,300-3,600 salary (based on 7 or 8 week program)
• Up to $1,000 reimbursement for flight tickets and China visa fees, and assistance with travel planning
• Free hotel or equivalent accommodation and all meals provided during your stay in China
• Gym membership (where available)
• Opportunity to participate in WorldStrides’ Global Discovery Program, a full schedule of voluntary seminars, company visits, skills workshops, and social events at nights and weekends, concurrent to the summer camp
• Official recommendation letter signed by the company’s CEO

Pre-requisites
• Native English-speaking proficiency
• Strong verbal communication skills
• At least one year of university education by the summer
• Enthusiastic, energetic and outgoing personality
• Flexible and adaptable within a start-up atmosphere

WorldStrides Global Discovery Program
The Global Discovery Program is a comprehensive cultural and business education program, providing special access to the best of destinations around the world, including behind-the-scenes company visits, small-format talks with influential local businesses, seminars on leading economic and societal trends from local thought leaders, excursions to natural environments, as well as a full schedule of fun, social activities.

The Global Discovery Program also includes success skills development workshops, such as team leadership/motivation, advanced presentation and excel skills, and strategic problem solving. Plans for this year’s China program include a private tour of Alibaba and hiking at China’s famous MoGan Mountain range. Past years have included a case study by the Asia head of Mattel Toys on the Barbie China launch, a special tour of China’s leading dairy producer, and private trips to Shanghai’s leading modern art museums.
