PURPOSE: The purpose of this internship is to provide mature art history/marketing and communication students with an in-depth perspective of the day-to-day duties at the museum and to observe the inner workings of the curatorial team within the communication department. The successful candidate will have an opportunity to work directly with the marketing and communication director as well as interfacing with the curator. Among the duties are translation of marketing and communication tools, press events and participating in the museum’s benefactor programs.

QUALIFICATIONS: Marketing and communication/art history major, minimum junior

PROFILE: discreet, excellent writing skills, fluency in digital communication tools and strong knowledge and appreciation of Modern Art.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS: Strong command of French and third language a plus (Spanish).

APPROXIMATE DATES: June-July 2019, 8 weeks maximum

INTERNSHIP LOCATION: Picasso Museum, Paris, France

HOUSING/MEALS: not included

STIPEND: $2000

VISA: no visa - valid American passport

INSURANCE: Medical insurance and civil liability coverage provided by the student

APPLICATION DEADLINE: January 28th, 2019

Apply at students@frenchheritagesociety.org